

CHERYL BARAHONA

4400 Prairie Willow Court, Concord, CA 94521

(c) 925-849-7537 (h) 925-687-9458 Email: cheryl.barahona@gmail.com

QUALIFICATIONS SUMMARY

- Proficient in laboratory protocol with training in microscopy, culture of microbes and aseptic technique, control and identification of microbes through the use of stains, probes, markers and metabolic testing, antibiotic sensitivity, engineering of recombinant DNA and use of quantitative analysis test such as, PCR and ELISA.
- Languages: Fluent Spanish and English.

EDUCATION

University of California, Riverside, California
Bachelor of Science Degree in Environmental Sciences, emphasis in Natural Sciences

Diablo Valley College, Pleasant Hill, CA
Associates of Science Degree in Physical Education, emphasis in Personal Training

RELEVANT COURSE WORK

- Microbiology, Organic Chemistry & Physics
- Environmental Law, and Environmental Economics
- Soil Ecology, Soil Science, & Plant Biology
- Water Resources and Atmospheric Sciences

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Bay Area Solar Install Volunteer

GRID Alternatives, Oakland CA 7/23/14 – current (16 hrs/wk)

Supervisor- Jeff Lovelady contact Bret Carr: (510)731-1307 volunteerba@gridalternatives.org

- Assisted with the installation of solar (panels) PV rack systems, PV modules, wiring and conduit, PV inverters, etc.
- Organized the loading and unloading of all solar equipment from trailers onto roof tops and vice versa.

REHS Ride-a-long Volunteer

Department of Environmental Health, Santa Clara County CA 04/18/14 – 08/30/14 (8 hrs/mo)

Supervisor- Mojgan Kazemi: (408)918-3510 mojgan.kazemi@deh.sccgov.org

- Assisted a Registered Environmental Health Specialist conduct inspections of restaurants, bars, pools, and various facilities to ensure compliance of the California Retail Food Code.
- Translated (English to Spanish) and instructed BOH Spanish speaking cooks about proper food handling, safety measures regarding food storage and how to maintain safe food temperatures.
- Obtain critical temperature readings from food and water sources using different devices.

UCR Community Garden Intern - Biochar Research Project Leader

University of California, Riverside, Riverside CA 10/12 – 02/14 (10 hrs/wk)

Supervisor- Fortino Morales: (951)827-4271 fortino.morales@ucr.edu

- Supervise undergraduate student interns in proper research & laboratory methodology, technique & procedure.
- Worked with UCR staff, faculty and Garden personnel to grow crops for the UCR Barn Restaurant on campus.
- Responsible to research and develop a seasonal calendar, a growing/harvesting schedule for various vegetables and herbs
- Conducted and organized an experiment that evaluated biochar as a soil amendment and its effects on crop productivity
- Researched and implemented various permaculture and biointensive gardening techniques to improve productivity.

Diabetes Prevention Coordinator

UC Riverside Student Run Health Clinic, First Congressional Church, Riverside CA 08/28/12 - 05/28/13 (5 hrs/wk)

Supervisor- Talab Ibrahim: (951)867-7742 clinicmonitor@riversidesrhc.com

- Administered classes on nutrition, fitness, pre-diabetes & diabetes management and information regarding our Diabetic kits. (glucometers, test strips, trends of glucose logs, educational pamphlets, and peer group meetings information).
- Presented specific meal and fitness plans I designed to supplement a client's specific lifestyle while also informing them of the proper care needed, including: foot care and dental care, to manage diabetes.
- Conducted meetings for pre-diabetic and diabetic patients to encouraged and motivate clients to interact with myself, facilitators and one another to find solutions, support and information about diabetes management and prevention

SPECIAL INTEREST TRAINING

Facilitator at the Real Food Challenge Regional Strategy Retreat: 2014 at University of California, Santa Cruz

Directed undergraduate students through discussions relating to healthy, just and sustainable food systems

<https://www.facebook.com/RealFoodChallengeWestCoast>

Biochar - the future of sustainable agriculture: Lauren Hale at TEDxUCR.

Managed Informational Booth. Educating patrons of the uses, application and benefits of Biochar as an amendment for sustainable soil. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AKBkgJoaIXQ>

REFERENCES PROVIDED UPON REQUEST
