

Amanda Plagge

1255 E. Citrus Ave. Apt. 5 : Redlands, California 92374 : (208) 860-4150 :
amandaplagge1015@gmail.com

Education

University of Redlands: College of Arts and Science, Redlands, CA 2010- 2013
Bachelor of Science, Environmental Science

- GPA : 3.9 : Summa Cum Laude
- Departmental Honors: creation of an invasive species management plan for a 200 acre property within the San Timoteo Canyon
- Recipient of Scholar Athlete Award and Deans List every semester
- Member of Delta Kappa Psi, Omicron Delta Kappa, Women's Soccer Program (Captain)

Related Experience

ECORP Inc.: Santa Ana, CA June 2014
Volunteer Field Assistant

- Trapping grid for the Mojave Ground Squirrel

California Wilderness Coalition: Redlands, CA January 2014
Field Assistant

- Surveyed for the Desert Renewable Energy Conservation Plan

Nature Conservancy: Boulder, CO June - August 2013
Stewardship Intern

- Mapped and gathered data on Colorado's southeastern invasive flora (Canada thistle, Hounds tongue, Leafy spurge, Tamarisk, Russian olive, etc.)
- Collected data and monitor Box turtles (Terrapene ornata) and Prairie dog towns
- Wrote annual reports on conservation easements for the Colorado's State Land Board
- Monitored vegetation of conservation easements and preserves

United States Geological Survey (USGS): Redlands, CA January - May 2013
Volunteer

- Collected water data from managed sites
- Lab work pertaining to water quality samples collected
- Gained knowledge in water rights and management of the USGS' managed sites
- Created a more efficient and electronic version of the information system for AVEC

Technical and Professional Skills

Computer

- Mapping vegetation and species monitoring with Trimble GPS unit (and other types)
- Proficient with ArcGIS, Google Earth, Excel, Word, Powerpoint, Adobe Photoshop and Illustrator and other programs
- Turbidity Measuring Instrumentation / Water Analysis
- Knowledge of water analysis data bases (such as Monkeys)

Writing

- NEPA/CEQA writing skills and knowledge
- Management Plans
- Annual Reports
- Wetland / Riparian Monitoring Reports

Field

- Transect sampling, Grid trapping, Photopoint monitoring
- Environmental Planning
 - Created a proposal for an environmentally friendly living community in Calimesa, CA
- Knowledge and ability to identify flora and fauna within Colorado, Idaho, and California