

Benjamin Trif

3611 SE 28TH AVE APT 203 - Portland, OR 97202
midnitesnackattack@gmail.com - 503-512-3683

I have manufacturing experience and food production experience and also warehouse experience I have a great work attitude my number one priority is safety not just for myself but for everyone around me. I am very self sufficient and self driven I have experience working in a lab and using lab equipment. I have heavy industrial and machinery experience I have experience with Microsoft word excel USPS ups and FedEx freight shipping I am forklift certified with years of fork-lifting experience.

WORK EXPERIENCE

POS CHECKER CRC

COCA COLA - Wilsonville, OR - May 2013 to July 2014

Responsibilities

Responsible for checking in trucks taking inventory of return stock assisting in final driver closings in hand held PDA'S tagging and reshipping freight, keeping trash and recycle bins empty and clear of warehouse operations, running crushing machine that makes cubes of plastic bottle and cans for shipping to a recycling facility, operating forklift, loading and unloading of freight, building point of sales displays, cleaning, sweeping, and other minor task throughout shift.

Accomplishments

I have discovered new ways and techniques to better complete multiple task's more safely and efficiently and they are now implied as the standard for that job position.

Skills Used

I used my skills of many years as a forklift driver I took the company standards of safety and I enhanced it as I progressed

Staffing agencies & Labor pools and self promoting labor on Craigslist

Multiple - Portland, OR - September 2011 to September 2013

Responsibilities

Working different jobs from construction to dishwasher at OHSU and Intel, material handler, Warehouse, press support, machine operator, forklift driver. I even posted ads on Craigslist looking for work everything from moving to cleaning to painting I took any job i could find. I have detailed information about this time period upon request.

Accomplishments

I learned many new skills from one job and applied them accordingly to any new job. I keep safety as my number one priority I made sure to complete my task to the best of my ability. I kept even to this day a perfect safety record with no injuries and no loss of production time and kept a perfect attendance record.

Skills Used

I used my priority of keeping a safe work place for not only myself but for others as well . I used any skills that i have learned from previous jobs and applied them to my current position if they were applicable.

Process Technician

Pacific Natural Foods - Tualatin, OR - September 2011 to March 2012

Responsibilities

Responsible for the production of soy milk, soups and other food production, lab testing, order selecting, forklift, temperature monitoring and adjustment, waste management, documenting reports. Running industrial machinery such as blenders grinders mixers and maintaining heating and cooling tanks.

Accomplishments

I kept a high priority of safety in every procedure and operation at the company. I maintained a high level of product quality using the companies rigorous lab testing temperature control and monitoring , constantly inspecting food quality from beginning to end

Skills Used

I used many skills that I have acquired at previous job's , I used common safety practices I used food safety procedures and commonly used food safety guidelines when processing and handling ingredients.

Dock Worker / Forklift Driver

Estes West - Portland, OR - May 2006 to March 2009

Responsibilities

Responsible for safe forklift driving, order picking, and stocking of computer equipment, chemicals, fragile electrical equipment, office materials, and building materials loading them and unloading them into proper trailers for delivery.

Accomplishments

I used my quick problem solving skills to load and unload trailers safely without any injuries or damaging any product while maintaining the companies policy of safe loading and unloading procedures.

Skills Used

I used my problem solving skills when having to deal with sensitive situations as for example loading a trailer to exact safe weight distribution requirements.

Assistant Manager in Training

Taco Bell - Portland, OR - November 2005 to May 2006

Responsibilities

Assisted in the training, restaurant operations and supervision of up to 7 employees in the expedition of fresh and hot foods to customers and patrons. Handled all food preparations, budgets and general book-keeping during shift. Unloading of freight and sorting and inventory control.

Accomplishments

Recognized as Employee of the month for April 2006 for increased productivity & excellent speed of service during a grave yard shift in the regional area.

Skills Used

I demonstrated exceptional customer service to all customers I lead by example for all of my employees I showed employees how to handle specific situations and how to conduct them selves in a professional manor.

EDUCATION

high school diploma

Conroe high - Conroe, TX
1994 to 1998